RESOUNDING LUXURY

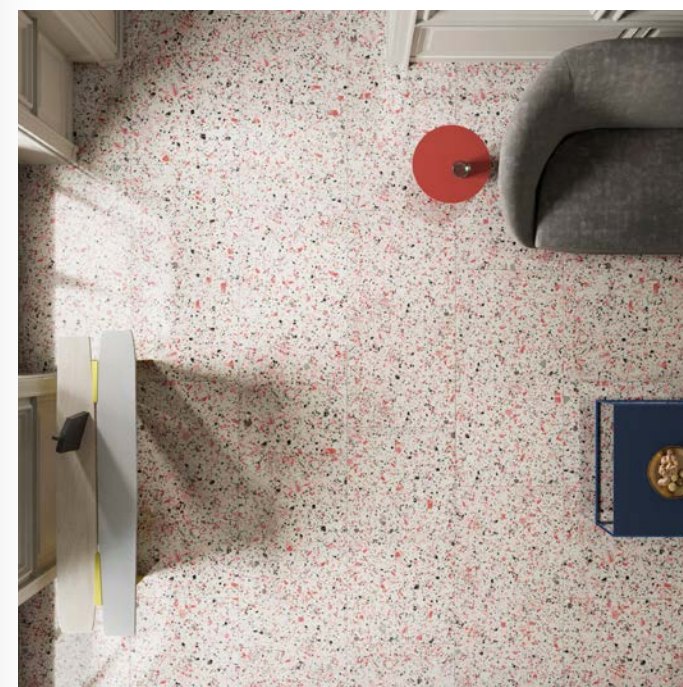

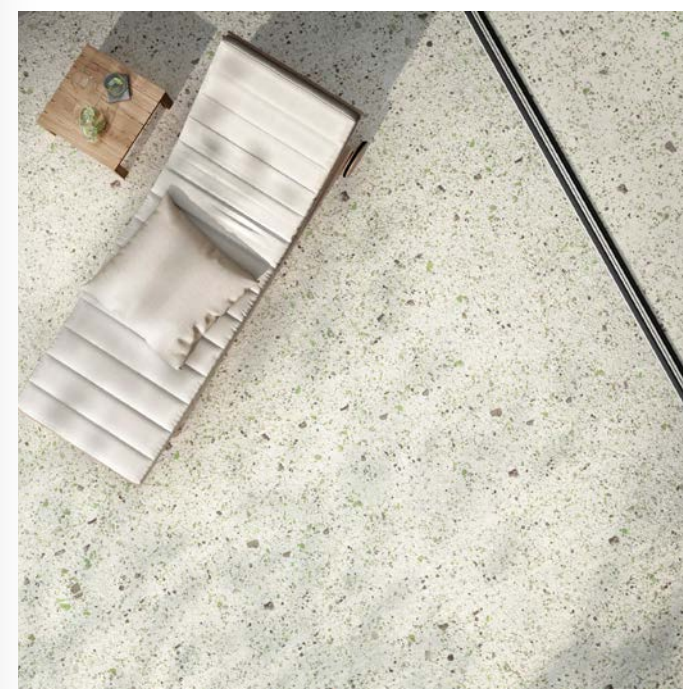

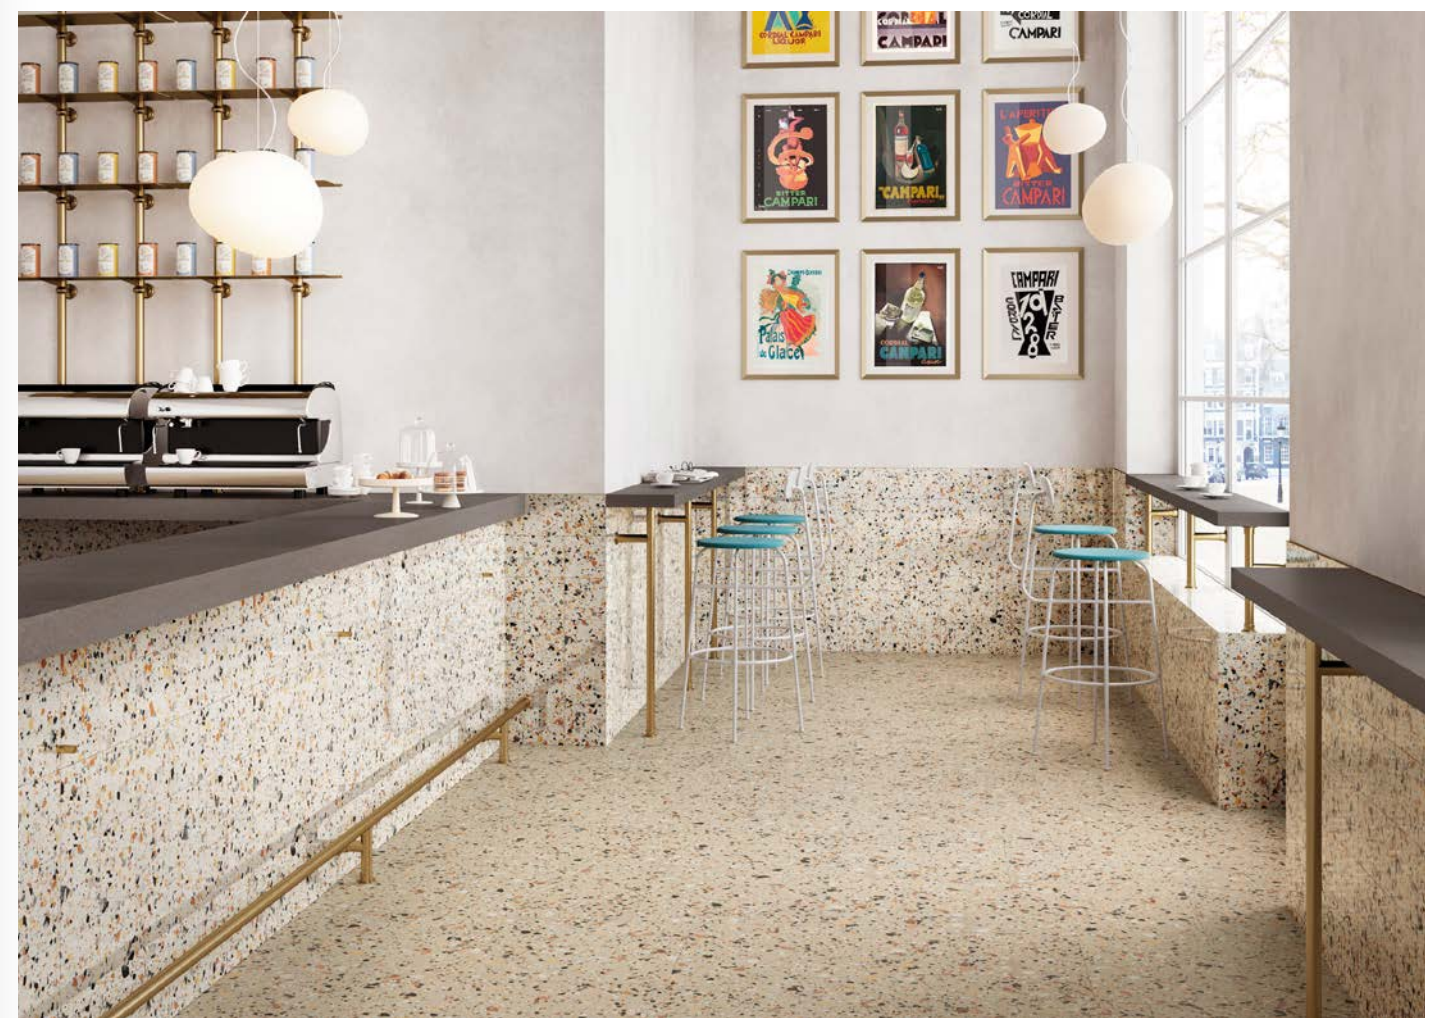

Venice Villa captures the spirit of Venetian terrazzo, an art form that has transcended centuries to remain one of Italy's most original and enduring design traditions.

It evokes the beauty of terrazzo floors that once graced villas and palazzos, where fragments of stone were transformed into surfaces of extraordinary richness and character.

This is a range that speaks of elegance and heritage, yet feels perfectly attuned to modern sensibilities. Its patchwork of tones and textures creates a sense of movement and individuality, a dialogue between past and present that allows every space to tell its own story.
